Goldsmith's Damages for Personal Injury and Death

KE1237 .A54 G64

Damages for Personal Injury and Death provides the most comprehensive and up-to-date collection of court decisions in which damages for personal injury or death have been awarded. It keeps subscribers abreast of the latest quantum of damages judgments and provides a wealth of cases upon which the researcher may draw.

The two components of Goldsmith - the Digest Service and the Consolidated Tables of Damages - work together to achieve the paramount objectives of currency and comprehensiveness. The Digest Service is supplemented with digests of the most recent cases from all Canadian jurisdictions.

Ontario Reports

KE0117 .O577

Published by the Law Society of Upper Canada through LexisNexis Canada, the Ontario Reports, Third Series provides, in full text, leading cases decided at all levels of Ontario courts. Published 50 times per year, the weekly parts also contain official Law Society notices (i.e., Practice Directions, Practice Resources and Tribunal Decisions), government notices of interest to the legal profession, fee schedules, lawyers' announcements and advertising. Cases are selected for inclusion based on whether the case:

- * Makes new law by dealing with a novel situation or by extending the application of existing principles
- * Includes a modern judicial restatement of established principles
- * Clarifies conflicting decisions of lower courts
- * Interprets legislation likely to have a wide application
- * Interprets a commonly-found clause, for example, in a contract or will
- * Clarifies an important point of practice or procedure
